

Park St Bristol, Sept 1st - 1854

(Thirskington Sept 4)
My dear Miss Weston.

My last direct communication to any of you, was I believe in an incomplete letter to Emma written before my last journey itself, & forwarded by Mr. to Pam. I meant to have signed it with my left hand, but it was sent away prematurely, now I can scrawl a few lines with my right hand, & send them to you to whom we owe so much as a civility. I don't think you will disregard this testimony of my affectionate & grateful remembrance, trifling as it is. Your letter received last week was most acceptable. I should never have felt safe if I didn't you had all seen & conversed with Chas. & you. Your estimate of him I am sure is correct, - his more favorable than I expected. It will be absurd to judge of A.S. in England by what the cause requires in America. The A.S. party in Eng. will be mainly composed of persons having not only the religious element, but the Secular element. Pray let the "Am. A.S." be content to have work done by ^{their} the only tools accessible to their English coadjutors. - Thorough, - radical, cut & out, consecration absolute are not to be collected in a body in Eng. all you can expect at present is, some one or two in Dublin, London Manchester, Leeds, & Birkenhead.

Amist, &c. Don't quarrel with Mr. A. because he can't make J. P. & c cry "reccavi" & get on their knees to W. L. G. They ought to do so but never will do. An ill conditioned Lie to the B. & F. A. S. with the Liberator in his hand could most seriously stop genuine A. S. feeling here - Ch. will never do this: if not too hard they wanted, (Thy) always told where he errs) he will do good service in our Churches, with removal in time prejudices against the A. O. S. S.
& will help the B. B. A. C., & will be the means of not & then even turning out a real Abol ready to work with us. His Can too be many times on a little - P. P. Get a move, & carefully too) by not putting him ^{even} out of his way, & determining to have a full talk with Ch. in London.

I know not if I have written such a letter in this same form last - My friends here must supply deficiencies -

To Mrs Chapman, to Emma, to your dear sister Lucia, to Lizzie, & Annie, offer my regard & love - My heart is not dead though I have a poorish head, & a feeble hand - Believe me Dr. My. Weston, ever affectionately yours,

J. B. Estlin
